

The EngineerGirl contest was my first real foray into scientific writing and thinking about responsible technology...

Katie Collins
High school winner 2016
Masters Student, Machine Learning
University of Cambridge

Ruth Hammond
Middle school winner 2014
Junior, Mechanical Engineering,
Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology

To have this national organization affirm what you believe within yourself despite existing in a society that feels like it is constantly tearing you down was a feeling so great it's almost impossible to put into words.